INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

Economic Growth

The Kenyan economy is estimated to have expanded by 5.7% in the third quarter of 2016 compared to a growth of 6.0% in the same quarter of 2015. The key macroeconomic indicators remained largely stable during the third quarter of 2016 according to the Kenya National Bureau of Statistics (KNBS).

Inflation

Inflation was contained within the Central Bank's target to average at 6.3% compared to an average of 6.1% during the same quarter in 2015. The slight increase in inflation was primarily due to increases in prices of food and beverages during the period under review. This rise was however countered by significant decreases in prices of utilities and transport.

Interest Rates

There was a decline in interest rates in 2016 as compared to 2015. The 91 day rate averaged 8.6% compared to 11.0% for 2015. The 182 day and the 364 Treasury Bills averaged 10.9% and 11.7% compared to 12.2% and 12.9% respectively in 2015.

Foreign Exchange

The local currency stability persisted in 2016 supported by monetary policy measures taken by CBK, resilient diaspora remittances and healthy forex reserves. The Shilling weakened by 0.2% and 12.8% against the US Dollar and the South African Rand while gaining by 3.0% and significantly by 16.1% against the Euro and Sterling Pound respectively. It however gained by 6.9%, 0.8% and 9.3% against Uganda shilling, the Tanzanian shilling and Rwandan franc respectively.

Capital Markets

The NSE 20 index and the NASI declined by 21.1% and 8.5% respectively in 2016. This downturn was precipitated by a host of global, local factors and the recent amendment of the Banking Act.

DB Performance

In the fourth quarter of 2016 the DB Fund registered a return on investment of 5.5% against a benchmark of 2.5%. The unaudited annualized performance of the Fund for the period ending 31st December 2016 was 9.4% against a benchmark of 10.2%. The non-attainment of target was attributed to poor performance in the equities asset class due to the declining share prices. The unaudited Fund value closed at Kshs 18.7 billion as compared to Kshs 18.04 billion at the beginning of the year.

DB Fund Growth ( Kshs. billion)

DC Performance

OUTLOOK

Provident Fund (PFA)

The Board of Trustees appointed KPMG Advisory Services Limited to handle the winding up of the now closed Provident Fund. On conclusion of the process, the balance of contributions for the in-service members will be transferred to the DC Fund as a one off lump sum contribution. In-service employees who were members of the Provident Fund and whose names are missing in the PFA list sent out late last year should contact the Secretariat.

QUARTERLY TOPICAL ISSUE

Additional Voluntary Contributions (AVC)

The Fund provides members with an opportunity to save for the day they will no longer be able to work to support themselves and their dependants. The ultimate goal is to save enough during the working career to replace a member's salary with a monthly pension of about seventy percent (70%) of final salary.

In the defined contributions scheme a member's benefits at retirement will depend on four basic factors;

1. The level of contributions the member has made to the Scheme
2. The contributions that the Employer has made on behalf of the member
3. The investment returns credited to the Member's Account.
4. The prevailing annuity rates at retirement.

To grow their accounts for a better retirement package, members are allowed to make voluntary contributions in addition to the five (5%) per cent mandatory contribution. The benefits of making additional voluntary contributions include the following;

- To take advantage of the tax incentives
- To increase a member's retirement pension and lump sum
- To increase dependants' benefits in case of death in service.
- Members intending to retire early can increase their contributions to cater for their early exit
- Voluntary contribution gives the member the ability to have control over benefit levels, by choosing the pace and amount of additional saving for retirement.
- At retirement the member can choose whether to convert the additional voluntary contributions to lump sum or to monthly pension.
- The additional voluntary contributions earn interest in tandem with the returns declared by the Fund

Members are encouraged to increase their contributions to the Fund. The necessary forms can be obtained from the Secretariat office or downloaded from the website.
